Paul West

Paul is a staff governor and has been a member of the governing body since September 2015. He is a member of the Staffing, Standards and curriculum committee.

Paul is the Assistant Head teacher at Oxspring, as well as currently the Y6 teacher, SENCO and computing lead. He has been a teacher since 1994 working in a range of primary schools across the borough and beyond as both a full time teacher and as a member of supply staff. In addition, he tutored a number of adult education courses at Northern College covering aspects of computing and mathematics.

He joined the governing body in order to maintain a strong link between the governors and the staff and children of the school, and to help ensure that the school is continuously moving forward and developing in all areas.
