Class 3 have created their own blog!

Blog posts will be written by the children and the teachers for parents and children to read and comment on at home. We are excited about our blog and think it will be a really good way to show everyone the amazing learning we are doing in class.

If you would like to visit our blog, the link is : class3oxspring.primaryblogger.co.uk

All comments will be checked by a teacher before being published.

Here are our blogging rules, which have also been posted on our blog.

- Only use your first name when commenting - no surnames.
- Relatives who leave comments are also asked to use their first name only or to post comments as "Tom's Mum" or "Gary's Grandfather".
- Keep safe - don't reveal any personal information.
- No text talk - write in full sentences and read your comments back carefully before submitting.
- Be polite - don't post anything that could hurt anyone.
- Always show respect - be positive if you are going comment and always remember that the blog is an extension of our school that the rest of the world is able to see.
- All posts and comments are checked by school staff before they are approved.

Happy blogging
