

CONSENT AND RELEASE

We regularly take photographs of children at our school in order to add colour, life and interest to the school environment as well as for articles promoting school activities and initiatives. We use these images as part of the newsletter, school display, class projects and sometimes in other printed publications and social media.

Such images may still be included after your child has left the school. We are also reviewing our photograph policy and will share this with you once it has been finalised.
