

Here are some ideas of activities you could try at home linked to the work we are doing about 'What can I be?' this half term. Perhaps choose a different activity to have a go at each week. We would love to know how you get on. You can then either send the homework in to school or you could send us photographs instead and we can share them on the large interactive board for the other children to see. You can send them to us using the following emails :-

Write some questions to ask a relative or friend about their job. You could write the answers or record them on a phone or tablet.

There are lots of different jobs that people do to keep people fit and healthy. Can you write a list of all the ones you can think of?

What would you like to do when you grow up? Draw or paint a picture of yourself in your dream job.

Firefighters, police and ambulances all come to us in an emergency. Learn your address and practise what you would say in an emergency.

Lots of people wear special clothes to work. Choose a job e.g. firefighter, chef, construction worker, and find out what special clothes they wear. You could even make a fancy dress costume or accessory, such as a hat or badge.

Practise counting in twos. Can you count pairs of socks in twos? Which family member has the most socks?
